And now we are Five!

We have just returned from running our Annual Venture for 8-12 year old near Ashdown Forest in Sussex. Home of the famous 'Pooh Sticks' bridge where AA Milne and his son Christopher Robin initiated the now world famous game.

I grew up on 'Now We are Six' with the line 'When I was five I was just alive'. It feels like that at the moment! Last month we joined the Benefice of Keysoe and Bolnhurst to the Benefice of Wilden, Colmworth and Ravensden, and yet we are still 5 very small communities and churches struggling to survive and pay our way but with a vibrancy, commitment and enthusiasm that is very alive.

As we look back over the history of God's dealings with His people there are many times in the Bible and throughout Church History when the people of God seem only just alive. Oppressed, displaced, exiled, persecuted, ridiculed, marginalised or just simply ignored, and yet still shining and living on making a huge impression on God's world, as Jesus tells us we are 'salt and light' in a world needing flavour and hope. And history has a way of repeating itself. I am fascinated by local history especially how it relates to national and global history. Until the 1950s Colmworth and Bolnhurst were one Benefice. And a famous Curate in the mid C19th The Rev Timothy Matthews living in Bolnhurst preached the Gospel in the open air calling people with his Bugle (which we still have at Colmworth where he is buried) in Ravensden where a Chapel was built. He faced great opposition especially from the church authorities at the time who were still reeling after John Wesley's preaching and forming Methodism a century earlier, and Matthews died young from his labours in telling as many as possible about Jesus' love and welcome.

So we are still just alive but full of hope as we continue to meet and work together to encourage and challenge one another to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ to all. We may not stay as 5 - God always calls us to grow and adapt to the needs of the world around us that changes as history progresses but still needs to hear and respond to the good news of Jesus who loves us and died and rose again for us so that by faith and trust and hope in Him we will always be 'just alive'.

We are now five alive and well. And the life we have is for ever and will never end, by faith and trust in Jesus who died but rose again and is alive.

Yours in Jesus's Name

Timothy Wilson
